PROJECTS

News And Publications Society | Official College Site

August 2023

- Designed and developed a dynamic website using Remix JS for the News and Publication Society, enabling members to publish and showcase editorials and written works.
- Integrated a robust backend using PostgreSQL for secure storage and retrieval of user-generated content
- Implemented Quill.js as a rich text editor, providing an intuitive interface for authors to create and format articles. Enabled users to upload images and thumbnails to enhance the visual appeal of their content.
- Deployed the website on Vercel, ensuring a reliable and scalable hosting solution
- Collaborated with society members to gather requirements and tailor functionalities to meet their needs
